

IF IT'S IMPORTANT | SECURE IT WITH SLIDELINE™

The right line for every job

No matter what size item you want to secure with a retractable line, there's a SLIDELINE to fit your needs. From retail electronics, to industrial tools, to public displays – SLIDELINE is the attractive, cost-effective way to secure what's important to your business.

SLIDELINE attaches unobtrusively to the product, allowing users comfort and freedom of movement with a constant-force retracting line of nylon-coated stainless steel. The item stays securely tethered, without inconveniencing your customers or employees.

The security you expect. A design that raises standards.

SLIDELINE is a powerful, visible deterrent to would-be thieves. But thanks to its smooth-working mechanism and streamlined design, it is virtually unnoticeable to your valuable customers. Your product's best qualities – not your security device – are at the center of attention.
